We changed your mailing address

We updated our records for your mailing address.

We update our records anytime the address entered on a tax return is different from what we have in our records, or a Form 8822-B is received.

The address shown above is where we will mail any IRS notice or letter about your tax account. We also sent a confirmation notice to your previous mailing address.

What you need to do

Our update to your address may be for minor changes in words and abbreviations, such as using "Street" rather than "St." in your address. To avoid confusion, you or your tax preparer should always enter your correct mailing address in exactly the same way every time you file tax returns.

If the mailing address for IRS notices and letters shown above is correct, you do not need to do anything.

If the mailing address shown above is incorrect, call or write to us using the contact information at the top of this page. If you call, please review the most recent tax returns you filed for differences in addresses entered. For written correspondence, include a copy of this notice.

Caution for employers regarding third-party payroll providers

If we find any issues with an account, we send a letter or notice to your address of record. We strongly caution any employer against changing the address of record to that of a payroll service provider or other third party as it may significantly limit our ability to inform the employer of tax matters involving the business. The employer is ultimately responsible for depositing and paying all federal employment tax liabilities. For more information, visit www.irs.gov and search keywords, "Change of Address" or "Outsourcing Payroll Duties."
